

AMUSEMENTS.

ALBRIGHT'S.—The regular season at Albright's Grand Opera House will be inaugurated on Monday by Janacek and his talented company in James M. Martin's romantic drama, "The Harvest Moon." Janacek is familiar to every theatergoer in the United States as one of the most talented actors of his time. "The Harvest Moon," which is produced here for the first time, has been written expressly for her, and as Madame Orling she will be afforded an opportunity to display those abilities which have made her famous in two continents. The play has been written to great favor where it has been produced hitherto. A. H. Stuart is the leading man of the company and the cast is composed of many distinguished favorites of the American stage. Miss Janacek will be well received by a strong company, and as she has always been a favorite in this city her engagement will no doubt be highly successful.

HARRIS' BI-CAST.—"Tom Sawyer" will be the attraction of the Harris' Bi-Cast next week and will be presented by a good company. It is full of fun and has been successful wherever it has been seen.

KERNAN'S THEATRE.—Linda, Holden Lester will appear at Kernan's Theatre next week in a comedy entitled "An Irishman's Love." It is said to be sound in interest and to be interspersed with new Irish songs and dances. It is not a sketch, however, but a legitimate Irish play with well-drawn characters and beautiful music.

LAWRENCE PARK.—There will be a grand tournament and summer night festival at the Lawrence Park this evening by Encampment #5, U. S. A. The English will be in contest at arms between the knights of Maryland and Virginia, a coronation ceremony, good speaking, music and dancing.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—"Julius Caesar" was presented at the National last night by Mr. Robert Dowling and his company. Mr. Dowling taking the part of Brutus. The response, dignity and loquacity of the man who struck down Caesar to save Rome from tyrant friends filled the house. In the Dowling family there was an impressive education and he was many times called before the curtain. Mr. Dowling made an impassioned Mark Antony and delivered the celebrated funeral oration so effectively as to secure an emphatic curtain call. Mr. Ferris made an acceptable Cassius and at times did remarkably well.

Excursions.

The trips to Marshall Hall tomorrow will be made by the Maclester alone, going down at 11 a.m., 2:30 and 6 p.m. sharp. There will be no boat service, but boats on the potowomac will be available.

Miss Grace Shannon, the daring young female aeronaut, will make another balloon ascent and parachute jump at River View tomorrow. The steamer Fairfax will be in port.
